RUMANIAN GENERAL IS SENT TO PRISON

DEGRADED FOR LOSING LAST BATTLE IN RUMANIAN TERRITORY

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Feb. 10.—The official gazette says a Reuter's dispatch from Jassy, the Rumanian capital, announces that General Sococu has been tried by court martial and sentenced to five years penal servitude and degradation on charges connected with his command in the battle of the Argechu river.

The Argechu river formed the last natural defense of Bucharest and the Rumanians lost 8000 prisoners when they were defeated in the battle there December 4 last. Bucharest was entered by the Germans on December 6.

AUSTIN MINING MAN BUYS RENO REALTY

The Stewart, one of the largest apartment houses in Reno, was sold by the Reno National bank Monday to F. H. Litcher, a mining man of Austin, for $22,900, says the Reno Journal. Litcher, who recently sold some of his mining interests in Austin, said yesterday he intended to make Reno his permanent home and expected his family here from Austin in a few days.

BEST PAYROLL MANY MONTHS

FIRST FULL MONTH CARRYING ADVANCE OF 50 CENTS A DAY

This is payday in the Tonopah district, as may be inferred from the glad smiles and the big rolls of gold and silver passing over the counters of the banks. This output finds its way to the neighboring grocer and storekeeper and by Tuesday morning most of it will be back in the coffers of the banks with a change of owners representing deposits from merchants and business men instead of remaining to the credit of the mining companies. This month is the best Tonopah has seen for over a year, since it is the first full month under the increased wage, which means at least $18,000 above former payrolls was distributed. The number of working miners in the camp is placed at 1200 and the amount disbursed to them today directly is approximately $186,000. This is for wages alone, but, as custom decrees that the tenth of the month is settlement day for all business concerns, the total amount placed in circulation cannot be less than $430,000.

SENSATION IS STIFLED BY FICKERT

MURDER AND DYNAMITING CONSPIRACY WILL NOT BE MADE PUBLIC

(By Associated Press.) SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—District Attorney Fickert retracted a statement made last night that he would make sweeping disclosures of a widespread murder and dynamiting conspiracy. He said he does not know where the man is who confessed that he conspired with Mooney and others and that the statute of limitations would run against the prosecution for other offenses executed through the conspiracy. Fickert said: "We will stick close to the evidence given in the Mooney trial in prosecuting the other bomb suspects."

NEW H.C.O.L. INQUIRY ORDERED BY WILSON

VIOLATION OF ANTI-TRUST ACTS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE SCRUTINY

The department of agriculture will assist.

BROKERS MUST DISCLOSE THE NAMES OF CONGRESSMEN TRADING IN STOCKS

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Stock exchange accounts held by members of congress will be examined by the leak inquiry committee as a result of the testimony of the Washington broker that certain representatives have traded through him. The account of every member as revealed by brokers' books will be inspected privately and if there is any suspicion that any information had been utilized in trading by public officials, inquiry will be inaugurated.

George Chipman, Washington manager for Harriman & Co., New York brokers, was the man who testified that members of the house had been trading with him.

When W. B. Hibbs, a local broker, was asked if any members of congress had accounts with him, he said his records would answer the question. Eugene E. Thompson, manager of the Crane, Pariss & Co. brokerage office, denied that any members of congress had accounts with his firm.

Further activities of the committee depend largely on the results of investigation into congressional accounts. If evidence warranting extended inquiry is unearthed, an extension in the committee's time for making a report of its investigation, now set for February 17, will be asked. Otherwise the committee probably will bring in a report late next week, after working a day or two in New York.

Eight newspaper men who were advised confidentially by Secretary Lansing on December 20 on the coming of what developed to be President Wilson's peace note, told of the circumstances surrounding the conference and declared they did not violate the secretary's confidence.

A. J. Clark, of the Washington Star, was questioned closely regarding his statement that the secretary had said he did not want news of the statement to become public prematurely because of the effect it would have on the stock market. This was in contradiction of testimony previously given by the secretary, but in corroboration of the testimony of another reporter, A. L. Jamison.

AMERICAN BRAINS AND MONEY WILL WIN THE WAR, SAYS EDITOR

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The Weekly Nation devotes two leaders to American affairs and says that the action of the United States is one of the two great events of the war, the other being England's full entry into continental affairs.

With the entrance of America, it says, "the balance sets definitely toward democracy. Henceforward western democracy is safe and its ideas must permeate central and eastern Europe. While the entente may combine their resources and in time secure a popular victory, yet they all must come from warfare crippled and impoverished. In this moral encounter America comes in with the necessary equipment for success.

"Unless Germany's assumption is that by June she will cut off the maritime commerce of the world from these islands, and thus sever the main arteries of the entente, then she must realize that she cannot win. She cannot fight America's brains and money and numbers and America's organized industry, which stands out as the chief rival of the German cartel."

DISCOURTESY ALLEGED BY GERMAN OFFICIAL

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Dr. William von Stuemm, the German under secretary of foreign affairs, in an interview printed in the Amsterdam Handelsblad, says Germany regrets that she was compelled to take the measures she adopted against Ambassador Gerard, but that the United States had prevented Count von Bernstorff, the retiring German ambassador, from telegraphing that he had received his passports.

The interview, according to Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent, was submitted to the senate.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

The program at the Butler this evening consists of a seven-reel bill. A five-reel feature and a two-reel comedy.

The feature is a Metro drama entitled "The Wheel of the Law," with Emily Stevens in the leading role. It is a romance of supreme dramatic force which demonstrates the fallibility of circumstantial evidence. Emily Stevens is an artist whose reputation on the stage, as well as in America. She is a star in her own right, possessing supreme dramatic qualities that have an irresistible appeal and leave their impress on every audience. The story is timely, and distinctly novel, and is handled in a masterly manner. Miss Stevens is seen in the role of a famous actress, her own character in real life, and then as the wife of the district attorney, who is ready to sacrifice everything to his blind belief in circumstantial evidence and his gubernatorial aspirations. Added to the feature is a knock-out comedy entitled "Where's My Husband," in which everybody laughs, and a great treat for the kiddies.

Tomorrow, another big show: Dainty Little Marguerite Clark in a beautiful picture entitled "Little Lady Eileen," which all the children will enjoy. Pearl White in the third number of "Pearl of the Army," in which many thrills are introduced, and a Paramount-Bray cartoon comedy, which always speak for themselves, entitled "Bobby Bumps Helps a Book Agent." Monday, E. H. Sothern in his third and last picture, "An Enemy to the King," supported by Edith Storey. Special music during the first show.
